State employment picture also bleak

Jobless rate (9.9%): all-time high in L.A. County

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The unemployment rate in Los Angeles County has reached an all-time high of 9.9 per cent, a figure well above the national and state totals, which one state official Friday termed as "awful —it's a depression."

The jobless figures for February meant that 329,800 persons were unemployed in the county. In Orange County, the ranks of the unemployed grew to 7.7 per cent for the month.

"I think it's a depression," said James D. Lorenz Jr., director of the state Employment Development Department. "But even if you use the word recession, let's stipulate it's awful.

"Los Angeles County has just set a record, a rather dubious record," he said. "The unemployment rate in Los Angeles County is the highest ever recorded —9.9 per cent."

Lorenz said unemployment benefits in Los Angeles County alone are being paid out at more than $50 million a month.

Especially hard hit, he said, were the aerospace industry, which lost 6,000 jobs and manufacturers of durable goods which saw a loss of 11,400 jobs in February.

There were 2.8 million persons employed in Los Angeles County last month, compared with 2.9 million in January, which showed a jobless rate of 9.2 per cent.

In Orange County, unemployment reached a 45-month high of 61,300, a 62 per cent increase above the February,

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The California unemployment rate in February jumped to 9.4 per cent, the highest in 25 years, as 94,000 workers joined the ranks of the jobless, it was reported Friday.

The total number out of work was 975,000. That was 268,700 more persons without jobs than in February, 1973, the state Employment Development Department said.

2 die, 7 saved as rough seas sink fishing boat

RANCHO PALOS VERDES (UPI) — Two persons died and seven were rescued from cold and choppy seas Friday when a pleasure boat on a fishing trip took on water and sank off the Southern California coast.

Heavy seas swamped the boat and its pumps were unable to bail out the water. It sank about a mile and a half off Point Vicente.

Three persons including a 2-year-old girl were plucked from the sea by a Coast Guard helicopter and taken to Torrance Memorial Hospital. They were treated for shock and exposure.

Carl Yearout, 52, was listed in serious condition. The other two, Holly Twist, 28, and her daughter, Laura, were in satisfactory condition.

The remaining four survivors and bodies of two others from the cabin cruiser were picked up by the Coast Guard cutter Point Judith and taken to Terminal Island.

The fishing boat was a 38-footer out of Long Beach and reported to be a converted aircraft rescue boat.

The Coast Guard said its radioed call for help was heard by a tug boat, Roughneck, which went to the scene.

The Coast Guard then swung into action with helicopters and cutters and all available city life guards in the area were rushed to the scene along with County Fire Department paramedics.

Swells were running four to six feet at the time and small craft warnings were up.

The tug picked up some of the survivors and then switched them to the Point Judith.

Senate outlasts talkers; weakens filibuster rule

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate voted Friday to weaken the legendary power of filibusters after finally crushing a small but determined band of opponents.

The end of the turbulent, bitter, and acrimonious fight came when the Senate approved a historic change in its anti-filibuster rule.

Under the revised rule, 60 senators can vote to kill a filibuster. The previous requirement was two-thirds of those present and voting—67 if all participated.

Although beaten, conservatives led by Sen. James B. Allen, D-Ala., refused to surrender.

They held off final passage by offering numerous amendments, demanding repeated roll call votes, and seeking frequent quorum calls.

But proponents of the rule change were just as determined. At one point assistant Democratic leader Robert C. Byrd said he was going to "play hardball" and keep the Senate in session all night in order to get the change adopted.

Not even an angry lecture by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, in which he implored opponents to abandon "dilatory and delaying tactics," stopped them.

"We're not going to roll over and play dead," Allen said. "We are not going to permit an assault on the Senate rules without it being fought to the limit."

But in mid-evening, senators stopped providing the seconds needed for a roll call, normally a courtesy extended to all senators. Allen was beaten.

Two killed as vehicles crash during dust storm on Rt. 99

BAKERSFIELD (UPI) — Sixteen vehicles piled up on California 99 south of here during a severe dust storm Friday, killing two persons and injuring at least one other.

The California Highway Patrol said the pileup occurred when a small foreign car slowed down near Panama Lane in the northbound lanes of 99, the car behind slowed and there was a chain-reaction. Officers said the foreign car was not involved in the pileup.

Traffic was halted for a while and then detoured around the crash site.

Interstate 5, after being closed most of the day, was reopened late in the afternoon and the CHP was convoying travelers.

A total of 22 traffic accidents in the Bakersfield area was reported during the day, 14 of them involving injuries, as winds gusting in excess of 40 miles per hour kicked up dust and reduced visibility to zero in many spots.

A number of local highway remained closed because of the conditions and there were a number of power outages.

Power commissioner resigns, raps Congress

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Federal Power Commissioner Rush Moody Jr. said Friday he is resigning because he cannot accept Congress' failure to end natural gas regulation.

"Nor can I accept the view that the (Federal Power) Commission must, in the absence of legislative change do no more than preside over the demise of the interstate natural gas market," he said in a letter of resignation to President Ford.

In a "Dear Rush" letter, Ford accepted the resignation —effective March 15 —"with a special sense of regret."

"You can be sure I understand the reasons which led to your decision and that I share your strong conviction in the urgent need to review and change our present natural gas policies," the President said.

Ford said it is "critical" for Congress to deregulate new natural gas in order for America to get the fuel it needs to be independent of foreign suppliers.

Moody, appointed to the commission Nov. 19, 1971, said he was leaving because "I can no longer participate in a regulatory system which is inflicting grave damage ...

"I can no longer accept the lack of leadership of the so called 'energy leaders' in Congress who, by their refusal to recognize the failure of natural gas regulation, continue to deceive the American people into the belief that wellhead price regulation serves the public interest."

In his letter to Ford, Moody expressed "my faith in your ability to lead this nation."

He said if there was even "a semblance of bipartisan statemanship" in Congress, the nation's problems would be fewer.

'Builder' award at LVC won by Dr. Kettenhofen

Dr. Robert F. Kettenhofen, Pomona optometrist, was named Community Builder at the La Verne College New Era Banquet Friday night in the La Verne Church of the Brethren Fellowship Hall.

More than 600 friends, trustees, faculty members, students and college administrators were present when La Verne College President Leland B. Newcomer made the award presentation to Dr. Kettenhofen, a man well-known throughout the valley for his active support of and participation in numerous civic and volunteer organizations.

Dr. Newcomer introduced Dr. Kettenhofen as, "The husband of Martha Dickey, an alumnae of La Verne College and the daughter of past La Verne College president," and reminisced about their college days together.

A native of Pomona, Dr. Kettenhofen has practiced optometry here for 29 years. He has served as secretary of the California Optometric Association and as secretary of the board of trustees of Los Angeles College of Optometry and is a past president of the state board of optometry.

He is a former president of the Pomona Rotary Club; he has also served on committees for many organizations including United Way and YMCA. Dr. Kettenhofen was recipient of the Jaycees Distinguished Service Award in 1950.

"A Question of Excellence . . . Not of Survival" was the topic for President Newcomer's state-of-the-college address. He outlined the college's growth and program expansion over the next five years.

Mrs. Mary E. La Fetra, chairman of the La Verne board of trustees, and successful Glendora businesswoman, launched the college's five-year, $5.5 million fund-raising campaign for expansion of educational programs and physical plant growth.

To hear Sadat's 2nd-stage peace plan

Optimistic Kissinger reaches Egypt

ASWAN, Egypt (UPI) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger arrived in this upper Nile city today to get President Anwar Sadat's proposals for a second-stage agreement with Israel.

Kissinger sounded an optimistic note in a brief arrival statement.

"I came to Egypt because I believe progress toward peace is possible," he said. "I will do my very best and I plan to stay in the area until we have achieved definite progress."

A senior American official on Kissinger's plane said en route to the Middle East that Kissinger hoped to define with Sadat the ideas for a new Egyptian-Israeli agreement they discussed on Kissinger's trip last month.

Beginning a new shuttle mission expected to last several weeks, Kissinger stopped over in Brussels on the way in an attempt to get another negotiation going —between Greece and Turkey over the future of the Mediterranean island of Cyprus.

In Brussels, he talked with Greek Foreign Minister Dimitrios Bitsios and both said later they hoped to meet again during Kissinger's current mission.

Two school board elections remain 'up for grabs'

Flip a coin or draw lots; Chino race ends in dead heat

Incumbent Pete VanderPoel and challenger Patrick J. Hooven will have to draw lots for a seat on the Chino School Board, it was learned Friday.

Vote canvassing was completed, and the race for the third seat on the board officially ended in a tie, according to a spokesman for the San Bernardino County Registrar of Voters.

VanderPoel and Hooven each received 1,026 votes in Tuesday's election.

Neither of the two candidates requested a recount of votes, neither, the spokesman said, so the race officially was declared a tie.

Lyle S. Briggs and Roy E. Ward both won seats on the board Tuesday, unseating a pair of two-term incumbents, Eva Weiszbrod and Charles W. Smith.

The race for third seat, however, will have to be settled by a drawing of some kind.

"That's the law," said Schools Supt. Royce Lapp, "It's written into the state education code."

According to the registrar of voters spokesman, the drawing will be staged at a time and place determined by the Chino Unified School District Lapp said it will be held at the district office.

"We could roll dice, flip a coin or draw cards," said Lapp. "There are many ways of doing it."

Whatever method the district chooses, the drawing will take place after March 17, when the county Board of Supervisors officially certifies the votes.

Hoffman calls for recount in Bonita--and he gets it

Clell D. Hoffman, the candidate who came in fourth and failed by 35 votes to win one of three Bonita school board seats in Tuesday's election, has filed for a recount.

Hoffman in the unofficial final count ran only 35 votes behind incumbent Robert Rimpau. Hoffman said Rimpau trailed in fourth place up to the counting of the last precinct vote, and that last precinct did not report until 1:30 a.m. Wednesday.

With all precincts in, the count was Rimpau 2,243, Hoffman 2,208.

Hoffman's recount request was verified by Joe Belfi of the Los Angeles County Registrar of Voters Office, who said that an affidavit of recount was on file.

A representative of the registrar's office will call all seven school board candidates together for a meeting the first of next week to explain procedure.

Following that meeting, the recount will take place of the 5,554 ballots cast. Results of the recount will be announced shortly afterwards, Hoffman said.

"I filed for the recount after many people in the district had encouraged me to do so."

Hoffman said that he had been informed that another citizen had filed a complaint with the registrar of voters office claiming the polling place at LeRoy's Boys' Home had not opened at 7 a.m. but sometime later. That, too, may have cost him votes since it served his neighborhood, Hoffman said.

Bonita school board incumbents Eugene Bowers and Lowell Godfrey won re-election with 2,935 and 2,875 votes.

Keep information on drivers confidential, says Campbell

Assemblyman William Campbell, R-64th Dist., believes the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) should keep confidential information it obtains on motorists.

Under the current law, he explained, anyone can call the state agency and for a 75 cent fee obtain the name and address of a car owner simply by giving the car's license number.

"The abuses made possible by this practice are obvious. Burglars spot a family in a loaded-down station wagon heading for a vacation. They call in the car's license number to get the family's address and then clean out the empty home.

"Or a car thief sees an expensive sports car on the freeway. He jots down the license number and calls the Motor Vehicle Department to find the owner's address. Then all the thief has to do is wait for an opportune time to steal the car.

"In effect, the state law places the property and in certain instances the physical safety of law abiding California residents in jeopardy."

Campbell, whose district includes Walnut and Diamond Bar, has introduced legislation that would place strict limitations on the sale, dissemination or public examination of auto registrations and drivers' license information obtained from the DMV without the written consent of the persons whose records are sought.

These records would still be open to persons wanting to check the accuracy of their own records; drivers' license information of those who drive for compensation; records which have been certified by a member of the bar to be relevant to pending or potential litigation; and persons in the business of renting or leasing motor vehicles who submit a written request to inspect to inspect the drivers' license records of potential customers.

'KEEP TWO PARTIES' — Vice President Nelson Rockefeller waves to the gathering at the Republican National Conference Friday in Washington, D.C. Rockefeller told the group, "Let's keep two parties with broad spectrums of opinion. I don't want to see one party of the right and one party of the left."

Another Pettis bids for seat in Congress

REDLANDS (UPI) — Shirley Pettis, widow of Rep. Jerry Pettis, and Ron Pettis, related to neither, both have officially declared themselves candidates for the late congressman's seat.

Jerry Pettis was killed in the crash of his light plane Feb. 14 in the San Gorgonio Pass. A special election will be held April 29 to fill the seat, which covers parts of San Bernardino and Riverside counties.

Ron Pettis, a 35-year-old Riverside attorney, is a former chairman of the Riverside County Democratic Central Committee. He announced his candidacy at a news conference here Thursday.

When asked if his campaign literature would make it clear that he was not related to the late congressman, Pettis said he would "give the suggestion a good deal of thought."

Mrs. Pettis, 51, announced her candidacy earlier.

Other potential candidates for the seat in the predominately, Republican area are former Rep. Victory V. Veysey, Assemblyman Jerry Lewis and Walter Pudinski, former commissioner of the California Highway Patrol.

Veysey was redistricted out of his old Imperial and Riverside counties seat in 1974

Remains of sixth victim identified

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) — A solution to the mystery of the missing young women moved another grisly step Friday with the identification of a sixth muder victim.

In Anchorage, Alaska, the dentist of Susan Rancourt, 18, compared dental charts with X rays taken of a skull found on Taylor Mountain east of Seattle and made positive identification.

She was the sixth of seven victims whose remains have been found in the same general area since last September. A seventh victim remained unidentified.

All the women involved vanished last year. Miss Rancourt was a student at Central Washington State College. She vanished from the campus in Ellensburg April 18.

Since last July 14, when two women vanished from a state park east of here, police have been looking for a man who calls himself "Ted." His left arm appeared to be in a white, plaster cast and he apparently enticed his victims by asking for their help.

The victims identified Thursday were Roberta Kathleen Parks, 20, Lafayette, Calif., an Oregon State University coed last seen leaving her residence hall May 6, and Linda Ann Healey, 21, of Bellevue, Wash.

Miss Healey, a University of Washington student, was the first of the young women to vanish on Jan. 31, 1974.

Wind storm hits; 18 hurt

CENTERTOWN, Ky. (UPI) — Winds up to 65 miles per hour raked over this western Kentucky community early Friday, overturning 20 house trailers and injuring at least 18 persons.

State police at Henderson said they knew of 18 persons injured, including three listed as serious. Seven persons were admitted to Ohio County Hospital in nearby Hartford, according to Pat Bachuss, assistant hospital administrator.

State police dispatcher Frank Cowan said the storm damage was confined to Yeiser's Trailer Park.

"A couple of trailers were picked up and moved over to another field about 100 yards," Cowan said.

Booker gets death ruling

PASADENA (UPI) — A superior court jury Thursday decreed the death penalty for Billy Jo Booker, 28, Lubbock, Tex., who was convicted of first degree murder in the kidnap-slayings of a Monrovia woman and her 14-month-old daughter.

Market hits 6-month high

NEW YORK (UPI) — The stock market roared to its highest level in more than six months Friday on the New York Stock Exchange.

The Dow Jones industrial average, picking up steam in the afternoon, climbed 8.29 to 770.10, the highest level since it closed at 777.30 on Aug. 9, when Richard Nixon left the Presidency. For the week, the Dow rose 31.05 points, to bring its gain this year to 153.86 points.

Standard & Poor's 500-stock index rose 0.61 to 84.30. The average price of an NYSE common share increased by 23 cents. Advances far outnumbered declines, 998 to 43.

Investors, many of them institutions, either were not looking at the recession developments or were interpreting virtually any news as positive.

Valley man freed after 2 trials, 3 years in prison

After serving nearly three years in state prison and facing two juries, Harold Eugene Jackson, 37, Ontario, has finally been acquitted of the 1971 slaying of an Ontario motel owner.

Thursday in San Bernardino Superior Court Jackson heard the jury's verdict in the courtroom of Judge Joseph Katz.

Jackson in December 1971 was arrested by Ontario police on suspicion of murder in connection with the slaying of John C. Andriolo, owner of the Motel Sunset in Ontario. Andriolo, 79, was found beaten to death and robbed in one of his motel rooms on Nov. 28, 1971.

In the next few weeks, Ontario police arrested Jackson and three other persons on suspicion of conspiracy to commit murder in the case. One of the men arrested in the case became a state's witness, and the two others allegedly told other witnesses that Jackson and themselves had planned the robbery of Andriolo that ended with "the old man's" death.

A jury found Jackson guilty of conspiracy to commit first degreé murder following a June 1972 trial. The other two defendants in the case were tried separately and acquitted.

Jackson, through his attorney Jim McDaniels, appealed the case to the Fourth District Court of Appeals. The court last March reversed the jury's verdict on the conspiracy portion of the verdict, noting that the testimony given by witnesses about Jackson's alleged confession was merely heresay and could not be used as evidence.

Jackson, after gaining a reversal of the conspiracy charge, through McDaniel, immediately asked for a new trial on the murder charge. The new trial was granted in May of last year.

In the new trial, the testimony from the two confession witnesses could not be entered as evidence, and without it the jury decided that Jackson could not be ruled guilty of the slaying, said McDaniel.

Jackson can never again be charged or brought to trial in the Andriolo murder case.

Bull on rampage down Euclid Ave. is shot by police

A huge 1,500-pound Hereford bull broke loose from its corral at the Upland Packing House and rampaged down Euclid Avenue Thursday afternoon nearly causing several traffic accidents.

The large brown and white bull, according to police, ran south on the Euclid Avenue parkway and was pursued by officers. The angry bull rammed into the side of a truck several times as officers tried to force it into an enclosed yards. Nothing could stop the bull until it wandered into a fenced yard at 208 W. E St. in Ontario some two miles south of the packing house.

There officers, fearing it would break loose again and perhaps injure a number of children playing in a nearby schoolyard, were forced to shoot the animal.

Packers at the Upland packing house later told officers the bull was destined for slaughter and would have had to be destroyed anyway.

Chino finds home for bicycle races

Chino may have solved its bicycle motocross problems with the designation of a specific site for the activities.

City councilmen have approved the use of a portion of the Benson Avenue reservoir site, on Benson north of Philadelphia Street, for supervised bicycle racing events.

A number of complaints had been received from neighbors on the use of a vacant lot at the corner of Seventh and C streets for motocross, according to Jack Anderson, recreation and parks director. The lot had been used for the activities for about a year.

"The location of their activity was quite small and problems resulted with infringement on neighborhood activity," Anderson explained.

A recent public meeting, in which 35 persons attended, resulted in the conclusion that a motocross track was needed in the city.

The Benson Avenue Reservoir site was chosen because of an eight-foot chain link fence surrounding it that can be locked up. Other sites considered were Villa Park, vacant property at Third Street and Schaefer Avenue, a site at Don Lugo High School, and undeveloped areas on North Avenue and at Magnolia Junior High.

More fencing at the reservoir will be needed, however, at a cost of $300, said Anderson. To restrict participants from going further into the site, a four-foot fence around the track and a four-foot wide gate in another fence will be added.

Cost for supervision of the activities will be $60 per month, said Anderson.

Practice activities will be allowed one afternoon a week and comeptition will be held on Saturdays. Charges to riders will be 25 cents for practice and $1 for competition.

SILVER BEAVERS

MSAC OK's last air conditioning job for campus

Eight classroom buildings at Mt. San Antonio College will be air conditioned this spring, bringing the entire campus under weather control.

The MSAC Board of Trustees unanimously approved the work Thursday, awarding a $357,312 contract to the ACR Mechanical Corp. of Orange, the lowest of 17 bidders.

James Simpson, vice president in charge of business affairs, told the board that the ACR offer was more than $30,000 below the estimate of the district's architects.

He said the college will make up part of the cost of the installation through increased enrollment during the summer months.

Included in the air conditioning project are a row of buildings which stand along the center of the campus, running from Building 13, biological sciences, on the north, to Building 20, home economics, on the south.

Also to be air conditioned are two rooms, one in the music and drama building, and the other housing student personnel.

Planners postpone action on new Griswold building

The Claremont Planning Commission has continued for two weeks a request for a variance for a proposed four-story office building in the Griswolds' complex, and has continued for one month the city's proposed noise element of the general plan.

About 45 neighborhood residents were on hand Tuesday night to express their concerns about traffic created by persons using the 24,000-square-foot office structure proposed for a site east and south of Colby Circle and north of Foothill Boulevard.

Alton Sanford has requested a variance to erect the building which would exceed by 30 feet the height limitation allowed in a limited commercial district.

Sanford also requested a reduction in the parking requirement so he could provide more landscaping around the building.

The commission continued the variance discussion because it had received the environmental impact report that evening and had not had a chance to review it.

Because of the lateness of the hour, the commission continued discussion of the proposed noise element for a month.

Planning Director Donald G. King will serve as a resource person at a Chamber of Commerce-City Council dinner March 18, the same night as the next Planning Commission meeting.

He wrote the draft of the noise element, and the commission will want to go over the element paragraph by paragraph before recommending adoption to the City Council.

Two suspects in school arson now in custody

Pomona Fire Department arson investigators have in custody two 17-year-old youths in connection with the Tuesday afternoon restroom fire at Pomona High School.

Fire Chief John Fowlkes said both are being charged with arson.

Both will be kept in custody, one in Pomona and one in Los Angeles, pending hearings in Juvenile Court, Fowlkes said.

Fowlkes said it would be up to the school to determine exact loss estimates and to press parents for payment of damages.

One of the youths under arrest is a student at Park Avenue High School, Fowlkes said, and the other is an ex-Park Avenue student.

Claremont mishap injures Covina man

A Covina man was injured in a two-car collision at 10th Street and Indian Hill Boulevard in Claremont Thursday afternoon.

The driver, John Rosario Silao, 25, was taken to Pomona Valley Community Hospital where he was released after treatment.

Police reported that Silao was northbound and turning left when his car collided with a southbound car driven by Marcus G. Boucher, 40, 606 Delaware Drive, Claremont.

Nearly same response as parents

50% teaching year-round school like it, 36% don't

Half of the teachers involved in Chino's year-round school program give YRS a favorable rating, but 36 per cent indicate they are unhappy with the plan.

These responses are contained in the most recent survey of teachers, released by School Supt. Royce Lapp this week.

In the survey, an additional 13 per cent of the teachers gave YRS a "neutral" rating.

The survey is the first taken district-wide of teachers involved in the program since YRS was expanded to 11 schools last July.

Responses were computed by Applied Technology Center for Education, Fullerton, which also compiled the survey of parents, released last week. The parent survey showed about 55 per cent in favor and 31 per cent opposed to YRS, exceeding the district's objective of holding opposition to 25 per cent.

Teacher responses at individual schools ranged from 100 per cent approval of YRS at Magnolia Junior High to a 57.1 per cent negative response at Glenmeade Elementary School.

El Rancho School showed a 55 per cent approval rating, and 33 per cent negative; Gird Elementary had those positive and negative both at 37.5 per cent; and Gird Primary showed 39 per cent in favor, and 34 per cent opposed.

Newman showed a 37.5 favorable rating, and 54.1 per cent negative response; Glenmeade had 35.7 in favor, 57.1 opposed; Los Serranos had 33.3 in favor and 53.3 opposed; Marshall showed 72.2 per cent in favor and 11.1 per cent against; Walnut Avenue had 53.5 in favor and 32.1 opposed; Ramona Junior High came out 35.8 per cent in favor and 53.8 per cent against; and Don Lugo High School reported 64 per cent in favor and 16 per cent opposed.

Special education personnel in the district, including speech therapists, psychologists, nurses and music teachers, rated the program with 35.2 per cent acceptance and 41.1 per cent negative.

Total district response was about 74 per cent of the teachers.

Forty-eight per cent said the year-round plan makes teaching "harder", 24 per cent said it was "easier" and 28 per cent claimed it was "no different."

Contrasting the teacher survey to parent responses, teachers at Don Lugo High gave YRS a strong rating (64 per cent), but parents at the same school recorded the highest percentage (44) of parents opposed.

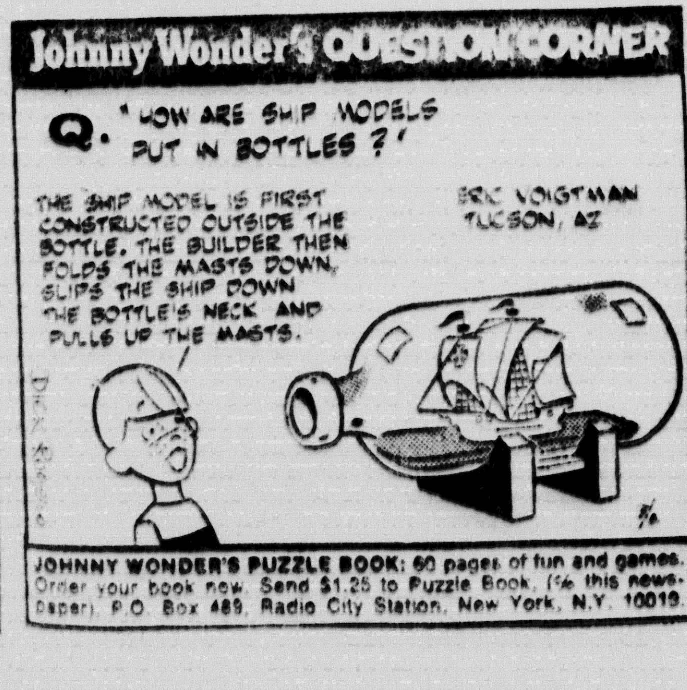
JOHNNY WONDER



Johnny Wonder's QUESTION CORNER
Q. "HOW ARE SHIP MODELS PUT IN BOTTLES?"
ERIC VOIGTMAN TUCSON, AZ
THE SHIP MODEL IS FIRST CONSTRUCTED OUTSIDE THE BOTTLE. THE BUILDER THEN FOLDS THE MASTS DOWN, SLIPS THE SHIP DOWN THE BOTTLE'S NECK AND PULLS UP THE MASTS.

Did you ever see a ship model in a bottle? If so, then you may have wondered how the ship got inside the bottle.

To pass the time on long voyages, old-time sailors often made model sailing ships in bottles. To get the ship in the bottle, the sailor first constructed the ship outside the bottle.

The masts and rigging and other parts of the ship were made in fine detail. Carving them took careful workmanship.

When the ship was finished, the sailor tied a thread to the front mast. Then he carefully folded the masts so that they lay flat on the deck.

Now the model ship was small enough to slide through the narrow neck and into the bottle.

Once inside the bottle, the sailor pulled up the first mast with the thread. That tightened the rigging, and the rigging pulled up the other masts.

Ship models in bottles make interesting collectors' items.

A pocket radio, camera, World Almanac globe or other fine prize will be awarded to the first youngster sending in a question used here. Send your question and your age to Johnny Wonder, (c/o this newspaper), Box 1335 (DA), Santa Cruz, CA 95061.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Two people you'll cross paths with shortly will treat you very generously and considerately, unbeknownst to one another.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You have a way with those younger than you today. They'll take to heart things that you tell them that are for their own good.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You'll be in the mood to putter around the house doing something you feel is more of a hobby than work. The results will be rewarding.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You have an air about you today that others will find extremely charming. You'll especially stand out socially.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) A concern you've had regarding how a situation would work out will be erased. The end result will please all.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You can get your points across now in a way that will be remembered if you sprinkle in a small touch of theatrics.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Something material you've been wanting will be acquired soon. The way in which it comes to you will be a bit mysterious.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You'll learn of something nice that a friend had to say about you. It will surprise you. You didn't think this person held you in such esteem.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Others are willing to go out of their way to help you today in matters relating to your career and finances.

Your Birthday March 9, 1975

'In God We Trust'

The motto of the United States, "In God We Trust," originated during the Civil War, when the Rev. M. R. Watkinson wrote to Treasury Secretay Salmon Chase attributing recent Union defeats on the battlefield to lack of faith in God and suggesting "recognition of the Almighty God in some form on our coins."

Prisoner behavior experiments banned

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — California prisons have adopted a policy prohibiting psychosurgery and aversive therapy on inmates following a controversy over two experiments involving 20 prisoners in the 1960s.

The policy was adopted five years ago after wide publicity over brain surgery on three inmates suffering a form of epilepsy and the use of the drug anectine on prisoners considered "self-mutilators or highly aggressive guys," a state Department of Corrections official explained.

In all cases, the experiments were performed on volunteer prisoners, he said. However, a controversy later arose over whether an inmate truly could give his "informed consent" to such operations in a prison.

"Rather than go out and crusade one way or the other (on prison experiments) we decided to leave those projects to others," explained Phil Guthrie, a department official. "We don't do any kind of negative behavior modification."

Electro-shock therapy, which he said is "pretty well accepted" in medical circles, also has not been performed in California prisons for 2 ½ years because of its controversial nature, Guthrie said.

THE GOODNESS TIRE COMPANY

How many tire warehouse sucker lists are you on?

If you only received one special secret tire warehouse discount this week, be patient.

You may find two in your mail box next week.

It's the latest tire selling gimmick.

Sign your name and keep it in your wallet to show your friends.

As proof that you believe in Santa Claus.

Like the card says, it's very exclusive. It's mailed only to those privileged persons who do or don't belong to a union, do or don't work for the government and have an odd or even house number, on either side of the street, within a 40-mile radius.

Or maybe your firm was fast talked into allowing each employee to have his or her own personal discount card, in the naive belief that it's a fringe benefit somehow.

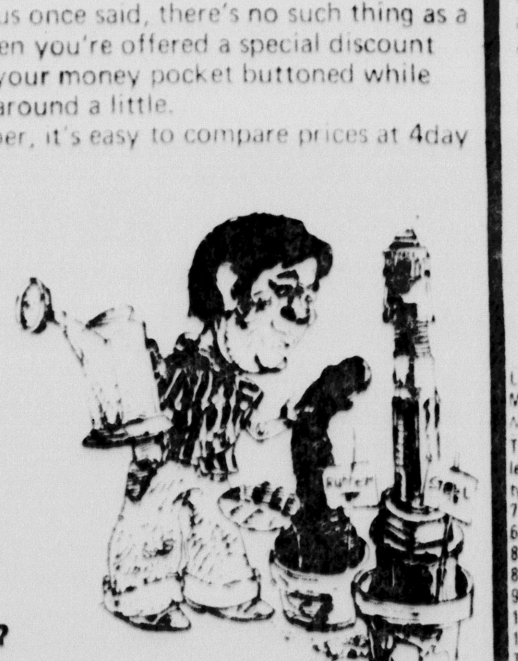
In case you think this card actually entitles you to a special price not available to the general public, try flashing it after your purchase and see if it gets you anything but rehearsed double talk.

Actually, the listed prices are about the same as you'd pay for cheapie tires anywhere else. When you get through paying the assorted extras, including the undisclosed charge for mounting the tires on your car.

That's the reason we offer tires either mounted or cash-&-carry. We do very little cash-&-carry business. Our objective is simply to help you compare the true cost of a good tire, unmounted, at 4day against the true cost of a cheapie tire, unmounted, at Slippery Sam's.

As Confucious once said, there's no such thing as a free lunch. When you're offered a special discount on tires, keep your money pocket buttoned while you just shop around a little.

And remember, it's easy to compare prices at 4day by telephone.



Or how about the valve stem game?

There's one extra charge that's often a rip-off.

When you buy a new car, it comes equipped with rubber valve stems.

The rubber is designed to deteriorate at the same rate as the tire. You must buy a new valve stem every time you buy a new tire.

Right there is an extra 85c to $1.35 per tire.

When we sell a new tire, first we check the old valve stem to see if it needs replacment. Often it doesn't.

But if it does, we offer you a steel valve stem for $1.50. It never wears out.

Or, we'll sell you rubber stems for 75c each.

They won't wear out either. They're made from EPDM synthetic rubber, which is ozone resistant, and never will crack.

If you do have to replace a valve stem, don't accept the conventional rubber type which will automatically need replacing again when the tire is replaced.

Insist on steel, for $1.50; or EPDM, for 75c.

Take your choice:

You might be interested in the little known theory that "Epdm" is a word derived from the Eskimo meaning, "How'd things go at the Walrus Works today, Umluk?"

That's the greeting supposed to have been given to a tired husband by his wife as he returned home late one afternoon to his cozy igloo just as she was in the middle of eating a steaming mouthful of boiled whale blubber. She distinctly said, "Epdm!"

Others insist that EPDM is the chemical designation for ethylene-propylene-dienemonomer. We lean toward this one.

Watch out for those extras

When you buy tires at 4day, we're happy to show you all our prices.

No extras. (Except state sales tax, which nobody can escape).

We do that because it's to our advantage to have you compare our 4day prices with prices anywhere else.

We already know we undersell. You have to find it out.

But keep your guard up when comparing prices.

Watch out for the little extra charges that you don't find out about until the tires are on your car and you're ready to drive out.

-Extra charge because your take-off tire isn't acceptable.

Some dealers use the "exchange price" device.

They quote you a selling price that requires you to trade in your old tire.

Here's the catch. If they say it doesn't look good enough to be worth retreading, the original price quote is off and now you have to pay a little extra.

Not at 4day. Our price is the same whether you leave your tire or take it home with you for a pet.

-Extra charge for mounting.

When we quote you a price it includes the mounting charge, except on cash-& carry.

We don't spring it on you after the tires are mounted.

-Extra charge for guarantee.

Some dealers quote an incomplete price by making you buy the guarantee separately. Even then, they usually don't guarantee any minimum number of miles.

Our 4day guarantee is included in the prices we quote, with a minimum number of miles on every tire we sell, unless you prefer to buy at the cash-&-carry price.

And our guarantee even covers run-flats.

-Extra charge for "free" alignment.

Some dealers pick up an extra buck by giving you "free" alignment that often winds up costing you from $5 to $50.

Most wheels don't need alignment. Therefore we don't consider free alignment much of a gift for someone who doesn't need it.

For those who do need it, when there are extra alignment charges above and beyond the free part, who's doing what to whom?

21 stores: LA, Hollywood, Bev Hills, WLA, Gardena, Hermosa, Santa Ana, San Jose, San Diego, Chula Vista & Dallas, Texas.

Our guarantee: If in normal use a tire bought at 4day fails due to workmanship, road hazard or running flat, or wears out before you have received the guaranteed mileage, we'll give you credit (or mail you cash) for unused miles upon return of tire and guarantee. Credit will be per cent of unused miles multiplied by price. Even if prices have increased, replacement will be at price you paid minus the credit due you. To keep in effect, bring guarantee to any 4day Tire Store every 4,000 to 6,000 miles so we can inspect tires, rotate them (free) if necessary, adjust pressure, inform you if alignment or other work required, & record date & mileage. Needed corrections must be made within 500 miles at any qualified repair shop. Then keep repair bill in the car with your guarantee. In most rapid wear cases, driver is harder than average on tires or car has mechanical problems, therefore a rapid wear replacement tire will not carry minimum mileage guarantee unless customer steps up to a longer wearing tire.

If you have a complaint, inform our owners, Don Carr, Bob Hofmann or Al DeWeese, 1600 W Coast Hwy, Newport Beach, Ca 92660. Or phone collect, 714 642-9262, from anywhere in Southern California.

*Credit means BankAmericard or Master Charge. We offer 4% off for cash. The 4% difference on a 30 day charge is 48% annual percentage rate. The deferred payment price is our cash price plus federal excise tax plus finance charge.

† Note: No mileage guarantee on tires sold at our wholesale or unmounted cash-&-carry prices. Our cash prices and our credit prices include cost of guarantee, inspection, rotation if needed, and mounting.

PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE INVITING BIDS FOR CASH CONTRACT NO. 4308 VALLEY BOULEVARD

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the Road Commissioner of the County of Los Angeles in Room 130, 1540 Alcazar Street, Los Angeles, California 90033, until 9:30 a.m. on April 1, 1975; and then will be publicly opened and read in Room 193 at the above address for the construction of cement concrete planter curb, installation of polyethylene film water barrier and irrigation system, landscaping work, plant maintenance and other incidental and appurtenant work estimated to cost less than $57,000.00, all in accordance with the provisions of the Plans, Specifications, Notices and Instructions to Bidders therefor which are on file and open for inspection at the offices of the Board of Supervisors and the County Road Department.

The Engineer may, from time to time and without Board approval, issue addenda to the contract documents during the period of advertising for bids for the following purposes: (a) revising Prevailing Wage Scales, (b) clarifying or correcting special provisions, plans or bid proposal; provided, however, that any such addenda shall not change the original scope and intent of the project.

Purchasers of contract documents shall be notified of and furnished with copies of such addenda, either by certified mail or personal delivery, during the period of advertising.

Proposal must be submitted on forms prepared and furnished for the purpose, which may be obtained at the Information Desk in the lobby of the Los Angeles County Road Department Administration Building, 1540 Alcazar Street, Los Angeles, California 90033 at which office bidders may also purchase copies of the Plans and Specifications for the contemplated work for the price of $7.08 plus Sales Tax per set, not refundable. A mail address and a phone number must be left at the aforementioned office which the prospective bidder agrees is sufficient to reach him.

Each submitted proposal must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check, or a surety bond, payable to the County of Los Angeles in an amount equivalent to at least ten (10) percent of the total aggregate bid price of such proposal, as a guaranty that the bidder, if his proposal be accepted, will enter into and execute the awarded contract, and furnish the required bonds in connection therewith, in accordance with the terms of the aforementioned Specifications and Instructions to Bidders. In the event that a surety bond is submitted in lieu of a check, it shall be subject to the condition that the surety thereon be approved by the County Auditor and County Counsel.

The Board of Supervisors reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and to waive technical errors and discrepancies, if to do seems to best serve the interests of the County.

Pursuant to the provisions of Sections 1770 to 1777, inclusive, of the Labor Code of the State of California, the Board of Supervisors has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the proposed contract, and it will be required that not less than said rates be paid to all such workmen employed or engaged on the work. Complete wage rate schedules are on file at the offices of the Board of Supervisors and the County Road Department and are included in the contract specifications available at the Road Department.

The rate of compensation for any classification not listed in the schedule, but which may be required to execute the proposed contract, shall be commensurate and in accord with the rates specified for similar or comparable classifications or for those performing similar or comparable duties.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS: Bidders must satisfy themselves by personal examination of location of the proposed work and by such other means as they may prefer as to the actual conditions and requirements of the work, and shall not at any time after submission of the bid dispute, complain, or assert that there was any misunderstanding in regard to the nature or amount of work to be done.

The contractor to whom this contract is awarded will be required, before execution of the contract by the County Board of Supervisors, to file with the County Board of Supervisors surety bonds as follows:

A "Faithful Performance Bond" amounting to 100% of the total contract price is required for all contracts.

A "Payment Bond" (labor and material) amounting to 50% of the total contract price is required for all contracts which have a total contract price in excess of $10,000.

N.C. State beats Maryland on Carr's Three-point play

GREENSBORO, N.C. (UPI) — Kenny Carr's last-second three point play gave ninth-ranked North Carolina State an 87-85 victory over second-ranked Maryland Friday night and clutch foul shooting gave North Carolina a 76-71 overtime win over Clemson in the semifinals of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament.

Phil Ford had 29 points, 15 of them at the foul line and four of those in the overtime, to pull North Carolina into Saturday night's championship game with the defending NCAA champion Wolfpack.

Clemson, trailing 38-27 at the half, gave up onty two baskets in the first seven minutes of thd second half to tie the score 4242. Clemson, led by Skip Wise's 22 points, was never able to get the lead, however.

In the first game, Maryland ran off 16 straight points in the final four minutes, grabbing its first second half lead over North Carolina State at 85-84 on Mo Howard's two free throws with nine seconds remaining.

But North Carolina State got the ball to Carr, a 6-foot-8 forward who grew up near the Terrapin campus in Hyattsville, Md., and he put it in from the right of the lane with one second showing on the clock. He was fouled on the play and made the foul shot for the two-point edge.

The game was tied 15 times and the lead changed hands 12 times before the Wolfpack jumped out front 41-40 on a basket by Carr with 3:18 remaining in the first half.

The Wolfpack held a 49-42 halftime lead and and were out front by as many as 17 points before Maryland began its rally. Trailing 84-69 the Terps reeled off 16 straight points before Carr made North Carolina State's game-winning play. Four times during that period the Pack went to the foul line but each time failed to make good on a one-and-one opportunity.

All-America David Thompson scored a game-high 30 points for North Carolina State, sinking 22 in the first half and eight before leaving the game with muscle cramps in his thighs midway through the second half.

Carr finished with 21 points, Phil Spence added 16 and Mo Rivers 10 for the Wolfpack.

Forward John Lucas paced Maryland with 23 points with Brad Davis contributing 18, Owen Brown 14, Howard 13 and center Tom Roy 12.

A case of the worries for OMS

By DON BRADLEY
P-B Staff Writer

Worrying and fretting is about the only activity scheduled at Ontario Motor Speedway today.

Fans and the operators of OMS will worry about the weather. The drivers will continue to fret about the dominance of A.J. Foyt.

The rain is supposed to end today or tonight. Foyt's dominance has always ended, at least at OMS, during the running of the race itself.

A. J. has never completed all 200 laps of the California 500. The Texan came closest in 1973. He started 26th that year and was still running at the end. However, "Super Tex" was on his 191st lap when Wally Dallenbach crossed the finish line.

Last year, like this year, he ran fastest in practice and qualifying but went out after 30 laps with a leaky oil line. In 1972, Foyt started sixth after qualifying at 190.758 mph. But he was out of the race after 28 laps with gear box trouble.

In 1971, he went out after 157 laps (rear end) after starting ninth. An accident knocked him out after 131 laps in the first Cal 500 in 1970 after he had started in seventh position.

This year he has said he might try to lay back and take it easy during the first part of the race. In the press box, they'll take all bets on that.

Garey heads into finals

Vikings knock off Los Altos in semifinals

By KEVIN CLOE
P-B Staff Writer

It's on to the Sports Arena for Garey High's basketball team.

The Vikings advanced to the finals of the CIF 3-A cage playoffs Friday night, and they'll face Mission Valley League champion San Gabriel for the division championship at the Los Angeles Sports Arena next Saturday night.

In a not too artistic confrontation with Los Altos Friday night at Cal Poly's Kellogg Gymnasium, Garey regained momentum early in the fourth quarter and rolled to a 65-52 triumph over the host Conquerors in the semifinal matchup.

Several times during the game it looked as though Garey was really going to blow out to a rout, but mistakes and fouls plagued the No. 1 ranked Vikings, and L.A. was able to rebound.

"I tell you," emphasized Viking coach Mike Wells, "when Billy Evans is out of the ball game we're in trouble."

Evans, the hot-shooting guard and team captain, got himself in foul trouble for the second consecutive outing and had to sit out most of the third period.

That's when Los Altos turned what looked to be a romp into a real tussle.

Garey, holding as much as a 16-point lead in the second quarter, went into the locker room at halftime with a 12-point cushion, 33-21.

When the second half got underway, Evans immediately picked up his fourth personal foul and retreated to the bench for the rest of the period.

Getting careless on offense and passing cut fouls left and right on defense, the Vikings found their lead trimmed to four when the gun sounded.

Evans returned to the floor at the beginning of the fourth quarter, and then the Vikings used two free throws by center David Larry and two more buckets on fast breaks to widen the gap to 10 points, 51-41.

Los Altos never got closer than eight points for the rest of the game.

"Billy runs the offense when he's in there," Wells explained. "When he's not playing, the team becomes unorganized. Two of the guys will be playing the stall offense, while the other three will be running a pattern."

Wells saw what was happening to his club after the third period had expired, and he reminded his players that Los Altos specializes in winning close games.

"I told them, 'Hey, they got the momentum now. You better go out there and get it back right away. You can't let them get close to you because they'll beat ya," the Gary skipper reiterated.

The Vikings promptly went cut and did just that.

So now they'll be the first San Antonio League team in the present alignment in 11 years to compete in the finals of a basketball championship.

In the 1961 2-A finals, which was one year before the SAL was formed, Chino reached the finals and lost by two points to Lasuen, 44-42.

The Vikings' next opponent, San Gabriel, advanced into the finals with a 58-49 triumph over Newberry Park. park.

Howie Dallmar quits Stanford

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI) — Howie Dallmar, 52, basketball coach at Stanford for 21 years, said Friday night he would resign following the season for personal reasons.

Dallmar's Cardinal teams have amassed a 264-263 record.

"I feel I have coached long enough, and now it's time to turn to something else," he said before his club's season finale against rival California.

There was speculation he might take over as Stanford's director of intramural athletics.

Pierce goes after fifth S.A. Cap win

ARCADIA, Calif. (UPI) — Don Pierce will go after his fifth Santa Anita Handicap victory aboard the mare Tallahto in Sunday's 38th running of the $170,000 event, the nation's first hundred-grander of the year.

Pierce, who rode winners of the Santa Anita in 1960, 1962, 1965 and 1972 and has finished second on two other occasions, will try to push Tallahto to the first victory ever in the handicap by a female performer.

Angel Cordero Jr., who has ridden 23 winners in the opening week of Aqueduct, will fly in to ride Tree Of Knowledge, winner of the 1974 Hollywood Gold Cup.

Bill Shoemaker will be aboard Stardust Mel, winner of the Charles H. Strub Stakes over a sloppy Santa Anita track.

Rainfall was expected in Southern California Saturday, with a possibility of rain on Sunday for the 1¼ mile event.

The Santa Anita offers a $105,000 prize to the winner, $30,000 for second-place and $20,000 for third.

Completing the list of definite starters are First Back, Cheriepe, Century's Envoy, Out Of The East and Confederate Yankee. Also possible as late entries are Okavango, Company Commander and Indefatigable.

Angel Santiago will be aboard Cheriepe, who scored an upset win in the San Antonio Stakes. Fernando Toro will replace suspended jockey Sandy Hawley on 4-year-old Confederate Yankee.

Century's Envoy will be ridden by Jerry Lambert, while Braulio Baeza will be aboard First Back, winner of the San Fernando Stakes.

Claremont soccer team booted out of playoffs

By GRAHAM CROW
P-B Correspondent

TORRANCE — It wasn't a fit night out for person nor beast Friday.

Nor was it tailor-made for the Claremont High soccer team.

The Wolfpack dropped a 2-0 decision to South Torrance on the winner's field in CIF semifinal action.

The final outcome, played before a surprisingly large number of "wet-nesses", was identical to last year's championship tilt when the Spartans prevailed over Claremont, 4-2.

In the first half, South's Kevin Dorn controlled the midfield area with his head shots and the Spartans attacked the ball a little bit better.

Fittingly, therefore, the one break of the first half went to the hosts.

In the second half, Claremont controlled the play almost completely. Unfittingly, however, the one big break of this period also went to South.

After shutting out three opponents in the playoffs, Claremont allowed its first goal seven minutes into the contest—some five minutes before the large group of Wolfpack fans even arrived.

Ron Saldana, South's finest player, got credit for the unassisted goal but it was what is kindly termed a fluke.

With the Spartans applying pressure in front of Claremont goalie Casey Roberts, the ball bounced off the back of a Wolfpack defender and into the net.

"We played their kind of game in the first half," explained Claremont coach Otto Rieger afterwards. "Instead of controlling the ball on the ground, we tried to play kick ball with them.

"And then in the second half we did just about everything right. Everything but score, that is."

Claremont actually did that too.

With only 6:35 remaining in the game, Claremont's All-CIF performer Gesner DoCarmo booted one past Spartan goalie Dave Wyman to the delight of Wolfpack fans.

But one of the officials claimed that Claremont wing Mark Kauffman was offside on the play and the apparent equalizer was nullified.

Just minutes ealier, Kauffman had almost tied the score himself when his crisp shot was stopped brilliantly by Wyman who made four sensational saves in the final period.

Having switched DoCarmo and Jim Van Zee from fullback to forward positions in the later stages, Claremont was vulnerable for the final goal which South scored.

Mike Eschweiler, on an assist from Bill Diroll, kicked it past Roberts who seconds before had the wet ball slip away as he lay sprawled on the ground in a desperation move.

Number two rated South will now meet top seeded Santa Barbara for the championship next Friday. Santa Barbara bested Edison 3-1 in the other semifinal match.

Claremont is scheduled to meet Edison in a game for third place. The location and time of that game is still undetermined with the possibility of no game being played at all.

Goring out of Kings lineup: eye ailment

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI) — The Los Angeles Kings have lost center Butch Goring for three and perhaps four weeks because of an eye injury, the hockey club reported Friday.

Goring suffered a fracture of a bone beneath the right eye when he was hit by a skate blade accidentally in a collision with Dennis Prodbent of the New York Islanders Thursday night. The game was a 2-2 tie.

Goring was taken to Century City Hospital in Los Angeles after the game and surgery to repair the right orbit or bony compartment beneath the eye was performed by Dr. Charles Aronberg.

Aronberg said, "The eyeball seems okay but Goring has much swelling, bleeding and pain. More tests will be made when the swelling subsides. He is expected to remain in the hospital three or four days."

This was the second injury for Goring this season. He missed the first seven games because of a shoulder separation suffered in a training camp pileup.

He leads the Kings with 26 goals is is the second leading scorer with 57 points.

Goring may be back by the Stanley Cup playoffs. To fill his spot for the present, Vic Venasky was called from the Forth Worth Wings of the Central Hockey League where he wan on loan.

Troy attempts to ruin UCLA bid

LOS ANGELES — Today's basketball battle between cross-town rivals USC and UCLA isn't a title showdown for the Pacific-8 Conference championship as was last year's second meeting but it is still important.

USC is in a spoiler's role in today's 3 p.m. tipoff at the Sports Arena with a chance to hurt UCLA's plans for a ninth consecutive Pac-8 title outright.

The Bruins (11-2) enter the final game of the regular season with a one-game lead over Oregon State (10-3) in the Pac-8 chase. Both UCLA and Oregon State are assured of berths in the NCAA tournament but today's action will settle where they go.

If UCLA defeats USC today, the Bruins will advance to the first round of the NCAA West regionals at Washington State next Saturday against the Big Ten's second team.

However, a USC upset win would change the picture. Oregon State would have the opportunity of tying UCLA for the title by beating Oregon tonight on the Ducks' home court in Eugene.

In case of a co-championship, there will be a special playoff game Monday night at UCLA's Pauley Pavilion to determine the sites of NCAA play for the Bruins and Beavers.

The Pac-8's second team will travel to the Mideast regionals at Kentucky to play Ohio Valley Conference champion next Saturday in a first round game.

Even if there is nothing at stake, a UCLA-USC battle is always something else.

Today's game will be televised live by KTLA (Channel 5) with a tape scheduled to be repeated at 10 p.m. KMPC (710) and KABC (790) will both carry the game plus KMPC will also broadcast the Oregon State-Oregon contest at 8 p.m. if UCLA loses.

USC is out of the running for the Pac-8 title as the Trojans (8-5) have a certain thrid place finish wrapped up. Coach Bob Boyd's team will probably represent the conference at the Collegiate Commissioners Association tournament in Louisville next week.

It's safe to say the Trojans are hungry for a win over the Bruins.

USC has lost 10 straight games to the Bruins and 27 of the last 29. But Troy has some hope for today's game, playing well in a 89-84 loss at Pauley Pavilion earlier this year.

However, USC doesn't have a home court advantage since UCLA has won 20 in a row at the Sports Arena, including last year's 82-52 in the showdown for the title.

Today's game could be the final L.A. appearance for several tops seniors including UCLA forward Dave Meyers and USC guard Gus Williams, two candidates for All-American honors.

A sellout crowd of 15,325 is expected today. A preliminary junior varsity game starts at noon.

Tokyo Giants trip Dodgers

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Tsuneo Horiuchi and Kunikazu Ogawa pitched the Tokyo Giants to a 5-3 exhibition victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers Friday.

Don Sutton gave up three runs and Eddie Solomon and Dennis Lewallyn one each for the Dodgers.

The Dodgers could muster only three hits, two off Horiuchi in five innings. Davey Lopes tripled home a run off Horiuchi in the fifth inning for the only solid Los Angeles blow.

Horiuchi singled in a run and Shigeru Takada doubled home another during a three-run uprising by the Giants in the third inning.

Bulls stop Laker rally

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI) — Guard Norm Van Lier scored 24 points Friday night as the Chicago Bulls withstood a furious fourth-quarter rally by Los Angeles to post an 89-87 NBA victory.

The Bulls, who snapped a four-game losing streak, tallied only 11 points in the final 12 minutes but were never headed. They led by 16 with 8:43 remaining when the Lakers started their comeback.

Van Lier scored five of Chicago's points, including a free throw with 17 seconds remaining, to give his team a four-point advantage.

Rookie Brian Winters netted 30 points, a career high, and reserve center Kermit Washington grabbed 20 rebounds, also a career high, to spark the Los Angeles rally.

Led by Van Lier, Jerry Sloan and Bob Love, Chicago took an 84-69 advantage with 8:43 left and appeared to be on its way to an easy triumph. But Los Angeles scored 12 consecutive points, six by Winters, to make it a contest.

Chicago played without starting forward Chet Walker, who has the flu, and Los Angeles lost guard Lucius Allen in the second half with a foot injury.

Gail Goodrich, the Lakers' leading scorer, did not play in the second quarter and did not take a shot while toiling 13 minutes in the second half.

The defeat was the fourth in a row and 10th and in the last 11 games for the Lakers, who now have lost 44 games, one under the highest figure in their 15-year West Coast history.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The U.S. Olympic soccer team will play three exhibition games in northern California in late March, it was announced Friday.

The games will serve as a tuneup for the team's American Zone elimination series against Bermuda. The team will play in Sacramento on March 21, in Fresno on March 22 and in San Francisco on March 23.

Grid union wants talks to resume

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Bill Curry, president of the NFL Players Association, said Friday the union is ready and willing to begin a new round of bargaining with the pro football owners in an attempt to reach a contract settlement.

Curry said that during a three-day meeting of NFLPA team representatives this week he has been in touch with William Usury, head of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, on the prospects of resuming talks which broke off last September on the heels of a six-week player strike.

"During the strike, I was sometimes criticized for being too optimistic and exuberant about the chances of a settlement," he commented. "I'm more cautious now, less exuberant, but I feel the deadlock can be ended. The players are ready to negotiate. I think a way can be found."

Curry reported that the 52 team representatives and their alternates have concentrated in the first two days of the meeting on the labor situation and current court cases challenging NFL player dealings, including the Rozelle rule which allows commissioner Pete Rozelle to set compensation if a player plays out his option and seeks to switch to another team.

He said Thursday's opening session was devoted to "clearing the air" on the conduct of the strike which ended without a new contract with the owners and the strategy in the days ahead.

"After a period of controversy which we experienced, an association needs to clear the air and we did that," the veteran center with the Los Angeles Rams said. "We know now where we want to go and what our commitments should be."

Union representatives and a management team have met twice in recent weeks with Usury in an effort to get the bargaining off dead center but apparently no progress was achieved.

Of the litigation scene, Curry said "the consensus of our player representatives is that the court developments are encouraging and the problem now is to translate what is happening into our labor relationships."

He was referring to a recent ruling by a federal judge in an antitrust suit brought by former Minnesota Viking quarterback Joe Kapp which found the Rozelle rule invalid and sharply challenged other league player contract provisions. The ruling is expected to be appealed to the higher courts.

Irwin (67) reverts to U.S. Open form

ORLANDO, Fla. (UPI) — U.S. Open Champ Hale Irwin, who says that title thrust him into international prominence but didn't make him a million dollars, shot a five under par 67 Friday to take the lead among the early finishers in the second round of the $200,000 Citrus Open golf tournament.

The bespectacled six-foot Missourian, with a 68 on his first lap of the 6,929-yard course at Rio Pinar County club, was nine under par 135 at the halfway point of the Florida classic.

Irwin, 29, winner of two Heritage Classic trophies before last year's victory in the prestigious U.S. Open, hit six birdies, including one with a 20-foot chip shot, and commented wryly, "I made a couple of putts today."

It took him only 26 putts to reach 18 holes.

Chuck Courtney, who led the first round with a 66, two strokes ahead of Irwin, was among the last to tee off Friday afternoon.

Former Masters champ Charles Coody came in with a 66 to put him at 137, two strokes behind Irwin.

Coody, a resident of nearby Maitland who was a second-place finisher in the Citrus in 1973 and 1966, dropped in six birdie putts, including a 40-footer, said "You can see I putted well today. When you do that, you can do wonders with a round."

Young Mark Hayes, who shared second place with Los Angeles Open winner Pat Fitsimons on opening day, was in a group at six-under 138 with rounds at 67 and 71.

Hayes bogeyed three of his first four holes, then got another on the back nine, but recouped for five birdies.

"If I hadn't figured out what was wrong with my putting stroke, I might have shot 80," he said. "I just didn't feel comfortable, even on a one-foot putt. I guess I was a little nervous."

Gallery favored Arnold Palmer shot a credible 69 to survive the cut with a 141 total.

Palmer, now 45, wearing glasses and taking daily exercises, collected four birdies and one bogey and said he missed several easy putts on the back nine.

"I had some good chances to pick it up a little bit," said Palmer, who won here in 1971. "The back nine could have got me back in the tournament."

South African Bobby Cole, posting a 68 with six birdies and two bogeys, was also among those finishing at six-under 138.

Cole failed to survive the cut at last week's Jackie Gleason Classic, his first American tournament of the year, but was among the PGA's top 60 money winners in 1974 and thus does not have to go through the tournament qualifying rounds.

"It's a strange feeling," he said. Like there is something wrong."

Irwin said winning the U.S. Open has changed his lifestyle.

"Financially, it's been better, of course," he said. "But it's no million dollars, I'll tell you that. That's a figure that's been tossed aound like candy."

Mainly the difference is in his self-image. He feels he should enter overseas tournaments "and represent my country as best I can."

"I'm not particularly looking forward to the British Open ... the weather is terrible ... I'm not crazy about it. But it goes with being an international class player."

Sports news in brief

NEW YORK (UPI) — The University of South Carolina was confirmed Friday as the fifth team accepting an invitation to the 38th National Invitational Tournament on March 15-23 at Madison Square Garden.

Eleven more schools are expected to be invited to the NIT Sunday afternoon. Princeton, Oral Roberts, Southern Illinois and Oregon joined the tourney Thursday.

South Carolina has an 18-8 record, with two of the losses by one point in overtime to Notre Dame and St. John's (N.Y.).

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI) — World Boxing Association bantamweight champion Soo Hwang Hong of Korea sparred Friday for the first time since arriving in Southern California last Sunday during a public workout at the Forum in preparation for his 15-round title defense against Mexico City's Alfonso Zamora.

Hong, 24, will be making his second WBA 118-pound defense of the title he won from South Africa's Arnold Taylor last July. He knocked Taylor down seven times in the bout.

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Los Angeles Rams Friday signed four free agents who will report to their training camp at Cal State Fullerton for a tryout in July.

They are: Mike Fink, 5-11, 185-pound cornerback who played in 13 games for New Orleans last season mostly as a kick return specialist; Mike McCoy, 5-11, 180, defensive back from Western Kentucky who had a tryout with Houston; Sam Johson, a 6-3, 225, linebacker from Arizona State who tried out with Miami; and Tom Jones, 6-3, 225, a guard from Northern Iowa who tried out with Kansas City last year.

Panthers win in 10th; Citrus rained out again

Chaffey College edged Saddleback 3-2 in Friday Mission Conference baseball game at Mission Viejo. The game had been scheduled Thursday but was rained out.

Citrus didn't have as much luck. For the second day in a row, the Owls had to postpone their game at Palomar. It is tentatively scheduled for Monday.

Weather permitting, Citrus will host Saddleback today at 1 p.m. while Chaffey hosts San Bernardino.

The Panthers beat Saddleback in the 10th inning as Jesse Chavez opened the frame with a pinch-hit double and scored on a two-bagger by Dennis Hawkins.

Winning pitcher Virgil Moore (3-2) retired Saddleback it its half of the inning to get Chaffey its second win in five conference outings. The Panthers are 3-2.

Records shattered at MSAC

Seven new meet records were established Friday in South Coast Conference Relays at Mt. San Antonio College, including three by the Mounties.

Fullerton dominated the non-scoring meet which is a prelude to the dual meet season which begins next week. The Hornets won seven events.

"Fullerton showed great depth," said MSAC track coach John Norton. "But we were very pleased with our performances."

The Mounties broke the 480 shuttle hurdle mark of 1:02.4 with a 1:01.5 clocking, set the standard in a brand new event, the 440-yard intermediate hurdle relay, with a 3:50.5 and eclipsed the team distance of 130-feet, 3 inches in the triple jump with 135-11. Eriche Scott won the event individually at 47-feet, 1¾ inches.

Other records were shattered by Fullerton in the four-mile relay in 17:40.2 (17:56.7 old); San Diego Mesa in the mile relay in 3:17.3 (3:19.7 old); Mesa in the 2 mile relay in 7:46.8 (8:00.1 old); Cerritos cracking its own mark in the distance medley in 10:11.6 (10:19.5) old).

In one other junior college meet Friday, Chaffey dropped a 76-69 decision to San Bernardino despite a triple victory by Dave Nugent.

Nugent won the pole vault in 14-0, the long jump in 20-9 and the triple jump in 43-11.

The Gordien brothers of Claremont won the discus and the shot put for San Bernardino. Mitch heaved the shot 51-1½ and Mark tossed the discus 186-9.

Chino overcomes errors to win, 2-1

Chino High won its fifth game of the season despite seven errors. Montclair made three errors and suffered its first loss.

Those were the highlights of seven baseball games reported to the Progress-Bulletin Friday.

The Cowboys (5-1) edged Azusa 2-1 in eight innings while Alta Loma slipped by Montclair (4-1) 3-1.

Elsewhere, Garey defeated Garden Grove, 3-1; Pomona edged La Puente Wilson, 3-2; San Dimas dropped a 4-3 game to Mountain View; Charter Oak lost to Glendora 4-2 in eight innings and Chaffey and West Covina played a 4-4 tie in 10 innings.

Damien High's game with Edgwood was postponed until Wednesday at 3:15 p.m.

Chino got two-hit pitching from Mike Coppess and Bob Townzen. Townzen picked up his second relief win by giving up only one hit in the final four innings while striking out five and walking three. Coppess also allowed but one hit in his four innings. He fanned four and walked two.

Townzen scored the winning run after singling in the eighth. He was sacrificed to second, went to third on Tim Derryberry's hit and scored on Mark Paine's sacrifice fly.

Derryberry drove in Coppess with a double in the third inning to account for the first Cowboy run. Chino is at Savanna next Friday.

Dave Petrocelli tripled in an Alta Loma run in the first. The Braves added two more in the third after shortstop Ron Candelaria booted a double play ball.

Brent Jetton doubled in the fourth and scored the Cavs' only run on Mike Medeiros' single. The Cavs are at Bonita Tuesday.

Garey got two-hit pitching from Don Ross for six innings and crack relief from Ron Andrejewski who retired three in a row in the seventh after walking the first two. Ross fanned seven.

Jeff Brackey hurled one-hit ball for four innings in Pomona's win. The Devils scored two in the first on a walk to John Souza, a steal, fielder's choice, a double steal, a passed ball and an error. Mike Wooten tripled in the fourth and scored the winning run on Dale Coleman's single.

San Dimas scored single runs in the second, third and fourth ninings while Mountain View came up with three in the third and one to win it in the seventh. The Saints, 1-5, are at Northview Tuesday.

ASU walks to 5-2 win as Leo pitching sours

TEMPE, Ariz. — Arizona St. completed a two-game sweep of La Verne College with a 5-2 win over the Leopards Friday.

Sophomore Tim Kelly was nicked for all five Sun Devil runs on five hits and seven walks in 5 1-3 innings.

ASU took a 1-0 lead in the first inning when Kelly walked the first two batters, hit the third to load the bases and then committed a balk to give up the run.

The Leos tied it in the second when Nick Leyva singled, stole second and scored on Rich Fielder's hit.

But ASU scored three in the fourth on a walk, hit, walk followed by Clay Westlake's bases loaded double.

La Verne scored again in the seventh. Jimmy Lentine doubled, took third on Jim Sherman's infield out and scored on a single by Mike Pagnotta.

The Leos, now 5-4, wind up their Arizona trek this afternoon with a game against Santa Clara.

The only other college baseball game slated Friday, Cal Poly versus Cal St. Fullerton, was postponed. The Broncos are scheduled to play two at Pepperdine today.

SCIAC spikers busy if weather holds up

Weather permitting, the valley's Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference track teams will be busy today.

Pomona-Pitzer, off to a flying start in last week's 85-59 win over Redlands, is slated to meet Caltech in a 1:15 p.m. dual meet on the Beavers' track in Pasadena.

Meanwhile, Claremont-Mudd and La Verne are competing at the Kingsmen Relays hosted by Cal Lutheran in Thousand Oaks.

Steve Smith led Pomona-Pitzer to its big win last week in the 100 (9.8), 440 intermediate hurdles (55.6) and 120 high hurdles with a school record time of 14.3.

Steve Mason and John Armstrong also set school records last week respectively in the pole vault (15-6) and mile (4 15.4).

Claremont-Mudd Coach Lloyd Parkson sees improvement in the Stags' team this year, mainly because of a better attitude.

Since his resignation from his Cabinet post in 1973, he has been devoting almost full time to private public service activities including the National Center for Voluntary Action in Washington, D.C., which he serves as chairman of the board.

Romney is a member of the Mormon church.

The program and arrangements are being handled by a committee composed of Harold Fasnacht, general chairman; David Martin, hospitality chairman; Bert Norton, registration chairman; Craig McManigal, arrangements chairman; and G. Merrix Lenox, chairman of service club relationships.

Honored guests at the breakfast will include the presidents and former presidents of valley colleges.

Song leading will be directed by the Rev. Ralph Lightbody, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ontario.

Education director appointed; adult classes offered

Mrs. Mary Ellen Kilsby has been appointed director of christian education effective April 1 at the Claremont United Church of Christ, Congregational.

Meanwhile, the church will offer two outstanding adult classes, beginning Sunday.

John C. Bennett, well-known author, will begin a series of three classes on "From Theology to Social Ethics," and will have as his theme Sunday, "The Source of Radical Social Imperative."

Miss Elizabeth Reed, author of "Helping Children with the Mystery of Death," will teach a class on that theme.

The church will participate Sunday in an all-church offering called the "One Great Hour of Sharing—SOS."

The church also will observe the first anniversary of the 1776 Achievement Fund Campaign—a denomination-wide effort of the United Church of Christ to advance racial justice by providing funds for the six predominately black colleges related to the church and for educational projects in 20 overseas nations.

Special music will be included Sunday at the 10 a.m. worship service, and the Rev. David M. Held will preach the third sermon in a Lenten series entitled, "When There Is No Compassion."

Mrs. Kilsby, a resident of Claremont and a school board member, received a B.A. degree at Pomona College and an M.A. degree at the School of Theology in Claremont, and currently is enrolled in the doctor of ministry program at the school.

She looks forward to ordination into the Christian ministry in the near future.

Mrs. Kilsby's responsibilities at the church will be in the areas of education and outreach, with primary activities involving the nurture and growth of children, and the over-all expansion of the church school program.

Little ladies change odds

By Oswald & James Jacoby

The unlucky expert looked over the dummy quickly. With 22 high-card points, North's seven notrump call was normal. It looked as if everyone in the field would be at the same spot.

It also appeared that everyone would have to locate the queen of clubs in order to bring home the contract.

He looked at his opponents. Two typical little old ladies. How could he go wrong against that opposition?

He played the hand quickly, while making sure of each play by each defender. He started with diamonds. West showed out on the second diamond and much to our expert's delight, dropped the three of clubs. The four of clubs came next and then the deuce of hearts.

This was just like taking candy from children. He almost decided to spread his hand and announce a club finesse against East, but that would be showing off. He cashed the hearts and everyone followed. Then he played the last two high spades and the nice lady on his left dropped the five and then the eight. Clearly she was left with two clubs and nine of spades.

He cashed dummy's king of clubs; led the jack and let it ride. Out on the table came the queen of clubs and the nine of spades gave the defense two tricks to add insult to injury.

Don't believe Patty, Anne made contact

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) — Federal authorities said Friday they do not believe Anne Hearst, sister of missing heiress Patricia Hearst, had any contact with her during a brief trip through Canada this week.

Anne Hearst, 19, and a male companion were arrested on drug charges after they were stopped at the Rainbow Bridge in Niagara Falls while entering the United States from Canada Tuesday.

She was interviewed by both the FBI and Federal Drug Administration, but a federal official, who would not be identified, said Friday: "There is no reason to suspect that she visited her sister in Canada."

There has been speculation that Patricia Hearst might be living in Canada.

A source said Anne Hearst broke into tears twice when asked about her sister's whereabouts.

Anne Hearst and Donald R. Moffett, 21, both students at Regis College in Denver, were charged with possession of amphetamines and released on $1,000 recognizance bond.

It happened in Pomona

By Doc Peirsol

Pomona pioneers

The first settlers in what is now designated as the Pomona Valley were Ignacio Palomares and Ricardo Vejar who, in the year 1837 became owners of an area that included all the present cities of Pomona, La Verne, Claremont and a part of San Dimas; their properties at that time being known as the Rancho San Jose. In 1840 they wre joined by Louis Arenas, a brother-in-law of Ignacio Palomares, who had been granted a square league of land known as the San Jose Addition.

The years passed and by 1862 one of our best known pioneers, a prominent figure in the business affairs of Los Angeles County, was Louis Phillips, then living in Spadra. Mr. Phillips had purchased a one third interest in the Rancho San Jose and, in 1875, sold 800 acres of his land to P.C. Tonner at $10 per acre and another 2,000 acres at $29 per acre. This was the land upon which Pomona is now located. Portions of this land were later sold to the Pomona Land and Water Company.

Mr. Tonner, who had located in this valley in 1871, was the attorney for the Pomona Land and Water Company, and he was one of the prime instigators in the first attempt to start a town here. A school teacher as well as a lawyer, one of Mr. Tonner's greatest claims to fame was his poetic ability. In deathless verse he proclaimed the wonders of this great valley and should rightly be proclaimed Pomona's first poet laureate.

Another of our Founding Fathers was the Rev. C. F. Loop. Coming to Pomona in the early Eighteen Seventies after an interesting career as an early California minister in Santa Cruz and Los Angeles, he joined with A. R. Meserve in the purchase of what was known as the Loop-Meserve Tract, consisting of 2,500 acres of the Rancho San Jose. Rev. Loop was untiring in his efforts to promote citrus culture in this valley. In 1885 he helped organize the Orange Growers Protective Association and was also interested in olive culture in this area.

Still another name associated with Pomona's earlier days was Cyrus Burdick. Coming here about the year 1871, he built his home in the valley and it was there that the first Republican primary in this section was held. Only one vote was polled and Mr. Burdick was elected to represent this district at the Republican county convention in Los Angeles.

In 1875, along with Palomares and Tonner, Burdick purchased land north of the railroad tracks and laid out a city called Palomares. Shortly thereafter, they sold this property to the Los Angeles Immigration Land Co-operative Association. The townsite was extended to areas below the tracks and at that time its name was changed to Pomona. The first sale of property in this new Pomona townsite was made in June of 1875. A man by the name of J. M. Hamilton purchased a 10 acre tract near the railroad.

At that time J. E. McComas was the superintendent of the Los Angeles Immigration Land Co-operative Association. Following service in the Union Army during the Civil War, he had come to Pomona in 1875, taking an active part in the real estate and building activities of the new community. He later was elected to the State Senate, being the first man in this area ever to achieve such a high honor.

The name of C. E. White also appears prominently in Pomona's early day history. He came here in 1880 and became one of our largest citrus growers. It was in his honor that Pomona's Pomona's White Avenue was named.

There were others . . . many others. Theodore Ruth, for instance, one of the first merchants in Pomona; A. T. Currier who come to the valley in 1862, settling near Spadra; C. T. Mills of the famous Mills Seminary in Oakland; M. L. Wickes, a Los Angeles capitalist and lawyer, and Frank P. Firey who planted the first navel orange trees in Pomona. These men, all played important parts in the founding of this city.

By 1880 the population of Pomona totaled only 130 residents but during the next seven years it had become a community of 3,500. Today, with a population of more than 80,000, it dramatically substantiates the faith and vision of these early pioneers.

Referees picked for Karpov-Fischer $5 million contest

AMSTERDAM (UPI) — The International Chess Federation announced this week Paul Klein of Ecuador will referee of the world championship match between Bobby Fischer of the United States and Anatoly Karpov of Russia.

His assistants will be Wilfried Dorazul of Austria and Enrico Paoli of Italy.

CHESS

Champion Fischer had Klein and Paoli on his preference list. Challenger Karpov suggested Dorazul and Paoli.

The match is scheduled to start June 1 in Manila.

The $5 million prize money has been guaranteed by Philippine President Ferdinand E. Marcos.

There is still some doubt, however, as to whether a match will take place because of a dispute over the rules.

Fischer has refused to agree to play under rules set by the federation's annual congress last year in Nice, which limited the match series to 36 games. He demanded a series that would continue until either he won nine games or Karpov was leading by at least 10 wins to eight.

The chess federation has called a special congress in Bergen, Holland, March 18-20 to consider further changes in match rules.

Soviet officials had criticized the calling of a meeting to change the rules again, but a spokesman for the Soviet sports committee said today a Soviet delegation will attend the Bergen conference.

In a recent article in Sovietsky Sport newspaper, the deputy chairman of the Soviet Chess Federation, B. Rodionov, said, "Fischer's whims, demands and conditions are increasing. Suggestions of an unlimited or a 50-game series mean the competition could drag on for months, and such a long match can seriously injure the health of its participants. The Americans are hoping for a good sporting form from Fischer, but his nerves are not iron."

Rodionov said the position of the the Soviet Chess Federation was to stand by the rules of the Nice conference that established a limit of 36 games.

"We are against attempts to dictate unilateral decisions and ignore the interests of Karpov," he said.

Youngsters will say it with music

Story by Joseph H. Firman
P-B staff writer

There's music in the air!

More than 46 million youngsters in elementary, junior high and senior high schools across the nation will celebrate the skills and rewards of music-making Thursday in the first national observance of "Music in Our Schools Day."

Sponsored by the 62,000-member Music Educators National Conference, the observance aims to focus public attention on the goals, processes and achievements of contemporary music education and to strengthen support for the schools' musical programs.

Taking part in a wide variety of concerts by bands, orchestras, stage bands and choral groups will be the school districts of Pomona, Claremont, Bonita, Ontario-Montclair, Chino, Walnut, Chaffey and Upland.

All 50 of the federated state music educator associations will participate in Music in Our Schools Day, as well as district and local music groups. In many areas the observance will go on throughout the week, with musical programs, demonstrations and concerts being held at schools, libraries, service clubs and shopping centers.

"This Land Is Your Land" has been picked as the official national song for the day, and it will be sung and played by school groups throughout the country.

The American Music Conference reports some impressive statistics about musical America today: 90 per cent of the nation's high schools have choral groups; eight out of 10 schools have marching bands, involving a total of 1,250,000 teen-agers; 60 per cent of the elementary schools have bands and 93 per cent have general music programs that include singing. In addition, 54 per cent of the schools have stage or jazz bands, and such groups are part of the music curriculum in 11 per cent of the schools.

The Pomona Unified School District music department, under chairman Fred Graff is one of the largest and most flourishing in the area. The secondary schools have 19 choral groups, ranging from madrigal ensembles of 16 to 42-voice choruses. More than 500 students are enrolled in choral programs. In addition, nine of the elementary schools have 40 to 80-voice choruses.

The district boasts eight orchestras, 11 bands, four stage bands, nine other instrumental classes, seven music appreciation classes and three guitar classes. More than 400 elementary students take instrumental instruction.

Pomona's major program of Music in Our Schools Day will be a concert by the combined bands and orchestras of Emerson, Lorbeer, Marshall and Simons junior high schools and the Pomona High School Chamber Singers at Simons at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. Guest conductor will be Dr. Vito Susca of Cal State Los Angeles. The program is open to the public without charge. "Kids love music and are eager to do it," says Steve Carr, Walnut district music director. The students will present concerts by the stage band, chamber singers, and woodwind ensemble Tuesday and Thursday. Though a relatively small district, Walnut has more than 300 students taking part in the musical program.

Both Ontario and Montclair have designated Thursday Music in Our Schools Day. At a recent meeting, the Ontario-Montclair School District Board of Trustees rededicated itself "to the maintenance of a music program which is relevant to the needs of children and which will positively influence each child."

Cal Schafer, music director, has planned music presentations at each of the 30 schools, at the Montclair Plaza and at local service clubs. The main performance will be by the district's band, orchestra, chorus and jazz ensemble at Ontario High School Thursday. The program will be taped by Theta Cable Television for later broadcast. With 13 music teachers, the district has more than 1,500 students taking some form of music course.

Some 1,000 students—about 12 per cent of the enrollment—take part in music groups at Bonita Unified School District. There are bands, choruses, concert bands, stage bands and chamber singers. The Bonita High School Concert Band, the Jazz Ensemble, the San Dimas High School Jazz Ensemble, and the Bonita High School Chamber Singers have won acclaim at festivals and national music conferences.

"The communities of La Verne and San Dimas take pride in the excellence of the music programs in their schools," says Howard Wigell, assistant superintendent of instructional services.

George Deres, director of music coordinator for Claremont Unified School district, reports that "interest in music is excellent," with some 40 per cent of the students taking part. The elementary schools have seven glee clubs and a district glee club and orchestra, and a jazz band. The junior high schools have a glee club, two bands and orchestra.

Claremont High School has a varsity band, stage band, orchestra, two glee clubs and chamber singers group, in addition to numerous smaller ensembles.

Both the Chaffey Union High School District and the Upland Elementary School District have comparable instruction in instrumental and vocal music and a variety of performing groups, such as bands, orchestras and glee clubs. All are taking part in the observance of Music in Our Schools Day.

C. E. Granger of the Chino schools supervises a number of musical groups from the 130-piece elementary schools band to the 200-voice high school chorus. In addition to the activities of the musical week, the elementary schools band will take part in the annual Band and Orchestra Festival at Redlands High School March 20.

Music is an important element in this nation's educational program, according to Dr. Charles M. Benner of the University of Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and president of the Music Educators National Conference.

"Classroom experiences which develop musical independence in youngsters, as well as respect for the group, are partly responsible for a positive climate that has developed for music in every state in this nation," he said.

Music, obviously is alive and well in the schools of the valley.

ON THE COVER

Members of the Claremont district elementary chorus, conducted by Joe Moore, sing "This Land Is Your Land," the official song for Music in Our Schools Day Thursday. The nationwide observance is sponsored by the Music Educators National Conference. The group estimated that 46 million elementary, junior and senior high school students will take part in the first-ever observance with concerts and demonstrations by bands, orchestras, glee clubs and smaller vocal and instrumental groups.

Author describes, laments decline of British influence

By SAMUEL I. BELLMAN

POX BRITANNICA: The Unmaking of the British. By Clive Irving. Saturday Review Press. E. P. Dutton, $7.95.

(Samuel I. Bellman is professor of English at Cal Poly, Pomona.)

First, note the opening statement of this British journalist's (London Times: he also wrote a book on the Profumo scandal) 245-page "insight" into the disease that is ravaging (perhaps even bringing down) Great Britain:

"Britain is more than a country: it's an idea. For years now, long after British power evaporated, the British idea has continued to fascinate people of all nationalities and races."

The title word, "pox," suggests the Latin word for peace —"pax" (it is pronounced the same)— and also an infectious and destructive disease, syphilis, caused by shameful misconduct.

It is refreshing, if sad, to find an insider saying with candor and regret that his country has grievously erred, is led by boobs, and is allowing itself to go down the tubes . . . and the author seems to be doing all of those things. Perhaps only after such unflinching honesty and justified indignation can any real progress by made; perhaps this is the only way that a disillusioned countryman can regain a feeling of personal worth and of the worth of his native land.

Clive Irving shoots down, with supportive argument, such foolish fancies as these: "The British System Works," "The Welfare State Takes Good Care of the Poor," "The British Have Their Priorities Right," "Class is No Longer Important in Britain," "British Justice is the Fairest in the World," and a scruffy host of other pieces of superstition, totem and taboo.

Dishonest businessmen, politicians, propagandists, muddle-headed leaders and flunkeys: a rout of fifth-rate pipsqueaks cluttering the corridors of power . . . have brought Brittania, which once ruled the seas, to the jagged, deadly rocks on the coast of Decadence.

Much attention is given to the cover-ups, the destructively faulty political honors system, the maladministration, which have laid Great Britain open to an accelerating process of collapse. In every imaginable area, including the oil custodianship of Great Britain's petrol resources, the people in charge have either sold out their nation to foreign interests (see particularly chapter 9, "Oil From Troubled Waters") or have been too inept to know what do about the exigencies of the day.

At the end of his fast-moving critique, Irving says: "Both the Labour and Conservative parties have adopted radical and reformist clothes, yet all their promises have been rendered nugatory. Each has been overwhelmed with economic crises; neither has seen beyond their immediate preoccupations to the real sickness. The country is locked into a repetitive spiral: Governments are diverted from social correctives by recurrent crises without realizing that these crises have social rather than economic origins."

Can we learn the lesson from this insider's put-down of his own country, and act on the fact that some kind of put-down is required before any kind of personal or national build-up can ever take place? And if we can't learn this now, will we ever have a chance again? "Pox Britannica" should make the book clubs and the TV talk shows and the other publicity media: here is one document that really deserves to.

Biographer sketches life of British beauty

By JUNE DUGAN

THE PRINCE AND THE LILY, by James Brough. Coward, McCann and Geoghegan, $10.95.

The Jersey Lily broke every rule of the Victorian Era and came up smelling like a rose.

For those whose concept of Lillie Langtry is a picture over a bar in the Wild West or a handbill on the bar's front porch announcing the glamorous lady's imminent arrival for a concert, this book proves there was much more to her than that.

The story takes her from her hoydenish childhood with a houseful of brothers on the Isle of Jersey to London, where she launched a career as a professional beauty. Truly, her face was her fortune, and competition among professional beauties was keen.

These beauties arrived on the scene slightly before the camera, and artists sketched their beautiful faces for printers, who reproduced them. The public snapped them up for decorations in their homes, sometimes paying as little as a penny for a picture. Thus Lillie's face was "impressed on a wider public than she had ever imagined might be susceptible to her charms."

The force driving Lillie, who had a quiet do-nothing husband who kept out of her way, was to scale the heights of society. She was successful beyond her wildest dreams.

This book is the story of her climb in London Society, climaxed by her liaison with the Prince of Wales, who was to becomes Edward VII of England and great-grandfather of Queen Elizabeth II.

So skillful and discreet was Lillie that she was accepted by the Prince's wife the beautiful and popular Alexandra, and presented to Queen Victoria.

While Lillie was more durable than most of the Prince's mistresses, her fall was sudden, brought on by her extravagance, a libel suit, detection of her husband and pregnancy by the Prince's nephew, Prince Louis Battenberg.

The travels in America as singer, actress and acknowledged beauty came as Lillie's attempt to make a fresh start. The Prince's continued influence brought her new admiration from many high-society American families such as the Jeromes, Astors and Vanderbilts, and Wild West characters such as Judge Roy Bean.

The book may get a bit ponderous to some when it gets into Eruopean politics, but much of this can be skipped by the disinterested reader without an loss to his enjoyment of the story about Lillie and the Prince.

James Brough has a long career as a biographer. Among his successful works are "The Untold Story: The Roosevelts of Hyde Park" and "The Princess of Washingon: Alice Roosevelt Longworth."

Pickard fruit bowl valuable

By DOROTHY HAMMOND

QUESTION: I have a beautiful footed fruit bowl, well over sixty years old, and would appreciate any information you can give me on its origin and worth. Its background color is white, with a green band around the sides and much gold decoration. Dainty gold clovers, pine cones and vines are held and there on the green band, splashing over into the white center of the bowl. Molded on each of the handles is the face of a lady, painted gold.

This bowl is hand-decorated and signed by the artist — either S. Rilayer or J. Kilayer. On the base it's marked W. Pickard. A. China. Any information including value will be helpful. Mrs. F. L. S.

ANSWER: The Pickard China Company was founded in 1898 by Wilder Pickard, and is noted for its fine hand-painted china. The firm is located in Antioch, Illinois, and is still in operation. And because of the interest in their products today, fruit bowls like you have described are selling in the $85-$100 price range.

QUESTION: Please advise me of the value of this small piece of colorful needlework, done on thin white parchment paper, 4 x 6 inches in size. It is in mint condition, very beautiful, and the embroidery is identical on both sides of the paper, as you can see from the enclosed photos.

My mother took this small picture to a little exhibition at a Chicago women's club meeting about 40 years ago, telling me at the time it was quite old. To me, it appears to be something quite unique — and possibly valuable. J. C.

ANSWER: Unframed, your fine piece of fancy stitchery is worth approximately $25-$35.

QUESTION: I have a good straight razor that closes in its handle, which is made of bone and decorated with a peacock in full color. This razor was made by the J. R. Tarry Razor Company of Worcester, Mass. How valuable is it? Mrs. B. M.

ANSWER: Examples like yours are generally being priced in shops from $20 to $25.

QUESTION: I've collected a few nice salt-glazed pieces during the past year and would like to know if table salt was really used for glazing this ware? If so, how? S. T.

ANSWER: To produce salt-glazed objects, salt was thrown against the stacked pottery while still in the kiln. The intense heat caused the salt to change into a vapor, producing a transparent glazed surface. However, when the salt particles hit the vessels before being transformed into vapor, it created a pitted or pebbly surface on the ware — hence the term "salt-glazed."

Reliable Builders trucks are parked outside new Montclair office suite.

Reliable Builders features personal attention

Reliable Builders at 8926 Benson Ave., Suite D, Montclair, are room addition specialists in the valley.

"Our policy of personal attention and supervision of every job, regardless of size, has made us a building company plus," said owner Norman Phillips.

"When a homeowner calls for a family room, a bedroom, a new bath or the remodeling of a kitchen, we work out a plan and design that fits his needs, one that will enhance his living and the value of his home — and at a price that fits into the homeowner's budget."

Phillips supervises each job personally because he feels each customer is entitled to the best in materials and craftsmanship.

"I personally see that it is constructed right," Phillips said. "Every job we do receives the same attention to detail and service, regardless of size or whether it's a repair job, a remodeling job or a room addition.

•"We do a customized job for each and every customer."

Reliable Builders handles the complete package for the homeowner from the initial planning and design through the complete financing package to completion of the job.

"Customers deal with only one company," said Phillips. "Then, if a question arises, they know just who to talk to for an answer, whether it be a question on financing or on some portion of the construction."

Basil Flora, estimator with Reliable Builders, calls on homeowners who need work done. His many years in the construction field have made him aware of the different needs of families and he bases his plans and designs on the needs and life-style of the individual families.

If a homeowner isn't exactly sure what he wants, Flora will make suggestions and design a plan he feels will please.

When a design meets the customers needs, Flora submits the bid for doing the job.

"These discussions and the designing are made without cost or obligation to the homeowner," said Flora.

"When a customer accepts the design, Norm goes over the plans as they are drawn to assure the homeowner that the construction will conform to state and municipal building codes."

Phillips said that lower construction prices are available now, due to the recent drop in some material costs.

"I don't know how long it will last, but I'm hopeful the trend will continue," he said.

In his more than 22 years' experience in the construction industry, Phillips has seen a lot of changes. "But one thing won't change," he said, "and that is our policy of giving our customers a fair price for the quality construction we do for them."

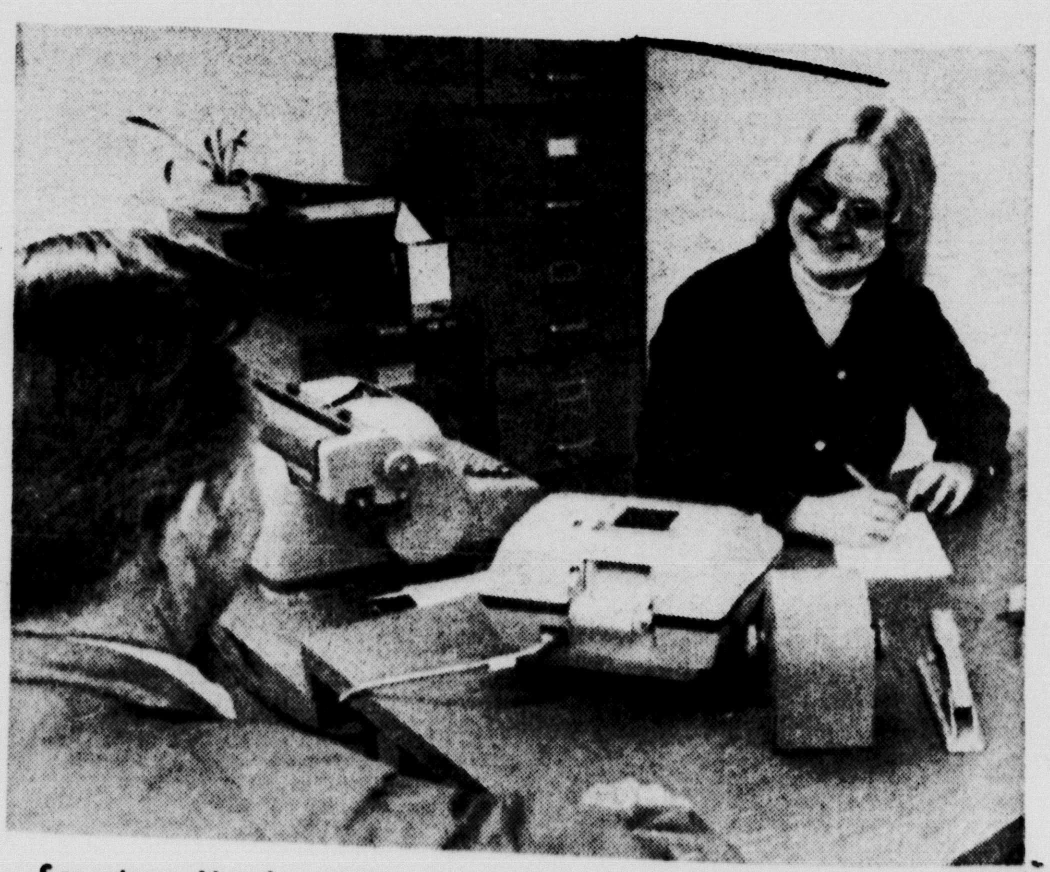
Flora said the "shell room addition" is popular with homeowners right now. Reliable Builders will construct this room, complete the exterior and in an economical way add beauty, value and room to a house.

This includes framing, flooring, stucco, roofing, exterior doors and windows and even the rough electric wiring. The homeowner completes the interior.

Those interested in additions to their homes may contact Phillips by calling 981-1031.

Reliable Builders have moved three times in the past three years to provide room for the growth expansion of their business. Before moving to Montclair they were situated in Pomona.

Owner Norman Phillips and estimator Basil Flora check a plan.



Secretary Marsha Phillips takes information from a customer.

OHS job training

The electronics class at Ontario High School, under the direction of instructor Les Vrieze, is training high school students in the technical field of television and transistor repair and maintenance.

Non-working television sets and transistor radios, given to the class for repair, are dismantled, analyzed, repaired, and reassemble. This practical experience requires frequent research in manuals and texts, as well as close listening to instructions and following of direction. Visual, oral, and manual dexterity are thus requisites for the courses students.

In addition to this advanced high school electronic instruction and apprenticeship, a course in repair of small appliances is also offered. Coffee pots, toasters, mixers, and other non-working small appliances are analyzed and repaired.

Each of these skills is a saleable one, and the students are finding jobs in many repair shops with the West-End area.

CHILDCARE

Practical instruction in childcare, presented to boys and girls at Ontario High School, will be tested when a preschool group of children invade the OHS campus April 1.

Sixteen preschoolers will be treated to individual attention which will include instruction, playtime and lunch. Each child will have a high school student counselor, and will be given his full attention.

Practice in the classroom learned techniques of childcare will make the instruction practical and pertinent.

Sandboxes and swings have been provided for the children. Special meals have been planned. Each student enrolled will be counseled on manners and diet.

This is the seventh year this program has been offered at OHS.

CYO contestant

Miss Johanna Garza, 17, Diamond Bar, will represent St. Joseph's Parish in the 1975 Miss CYO teen queen contest.

Miss Garza is a junior at Pomona Catholic High School. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred L. Garza.

She is one of 33 candidates chosen by Catholic Youth Organization community centers and parishes in the Los Angeles area to compete in the queen contest.

The winner will be announced at the annual CYO teen queen ball which will be held April 25 at the Hollywood Palladium. Music will be by the Tierra band. Actor Tom Peters will be master of ceremonies.

Miss Garza has worked as a volunteer with retarded children at Pacific State Hospital. She has tutored children at the library. She is a member of the school French Club, the Law Explorer's Post, the Young Citizen's Club, Library Club, the Organization for Mexican American Culture, the St. Joseph CYO Teen Club and the National Honor Society.

After high school graduation, she plans to attend Loyola-Marymount College and earn a law degree. This has been her goal since she was 8 years old.

JOHANNA GARZA

Advance ball tickets may be obtained from Miss Garza or the CYO, 213 385-7211.

The Bonita High School Foreign Exchange Club held its International Day during the past week.

An assembly that was optional was presented to the student body during third period. At the assembly, foreign exchange students from schools throughout the valley explained what their home country is like and what kind of experiences they have had since being in the United States.

During lunch, a reception was held in their honor. At the reception students were able to meet with the foreign students and ask them questions on an individual basis.

The Foreign Exchange Club is advised by Anastassios Daoussis, and Sue Bradshaw presides as president.

In a recent Jazz Festival at Neff High School, the Bonita Jazz Ensemble won 4th Place. There were over 50 bands in competition representing all the top groups in Southern California. Taking first place over all rhythm was the Bonita group, consisting of Scott Magallenes, Karen Hoover, Frank Hanson, Elliot Schaffer and Steve Lawrence.

OUTSTANDING

Seven Rowland High School students have been named Outstanding Teenagers of America for 1975.

They are James Joseph Bohan, Charlene Jean Hill, Sendai Griffith, Diane Cynthia Guardia, David Wataru Oshima, Renee Ann Scusa and Robert Ralph Alkema.

They are eligible to compete for scholarships totaling $7,000.

All-Stars at Chaffey

Chaffey High School's faculty and staff meets the "Johnny Brown Celebrity All-Stars" basketball team tonight in the boy's gym.

The game begins at 8 p.m., although the tickets being sold at the bookstore list the time at 8:30 p.m. The All-Star team was organized by Johnny Brown about five years ago and consists of baseball, football, basketball, movie and television personalities. Brown himself is best known for his work on the "Laugh-In" series a few years back.

Others on the team include: Joe Campanella, movie and television actor; Rudy La Russo, former Los Angeles Laker player; Kent McCord of the "Adam-12" series; Mike Warren, former basketball player for the UCLA Bruins; Tommy Davis, of the Oakland A's and Lance Rentzel of the Los Angeles Rams.

Actor Richard Roundtree of "Shaft" fame is a tentative player because of his filming commitments. There are also several others on the team.

Counselor Fred Brown is in charge of the event and has been connected with the All-Star team during the past three years. Brown knows some of the players on the All-Star team from his one-year as a National Basketball Association player in 1966. Brown hopes that in the future the Johnny Brown All-Star basketball game will be an annual event. Brown feels that the game is a good chance for the students and the community to be exposed to some name stars, and personally invites them to support the affair.

Tickets for the game are available at the bookstore and are 50 cents for students and $1 for adults. Proceeds go toward a scholarship fund.

PVCCA to present brass quintet

The New York Brass Quintet will present a concert in Spring Auditorium, Ontario, at 8 p.m. Monday as the fourth event of the season for the Pomona Valley Community Concert Association.

The non-profit association, celebrating its 21st year of service to the community, is holding its membership campaign through next Saturday.

Free admission to this concert is offered as a bonus to all persons joining the association for the 1975-76 season.

The quintet's repertoire includes a wide variety of styles and periods from antiphonal works of 16th and 17th century composers to 18th and 19th century compositions. There has been a rebirth of interest in brass music since World War II.

Persons wishing information concerning the Pomona Valley Community Concert Association may contact the headquarters for the campaign at Ralph Pierce Music Co., 822 N. Garey Ave., Pomona, telephone 622-8117. Deadline for new memberships is noon next Saturday.

Academy rule hinges on ERA vote

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Women can forget about attending the U.S. Naval Academy unless the Equal Rights Amendment to the constitution is ratified, according to Navy Secretary J. William Middendorf.

Asked about a change in the academy's male-only policy, Middendorf told the House Armed Services Committee, "The Equal Rights Amendment will determine that.

"We don't think we should take unilateral action —get out in front of the herd."

The ERA, which would ban sex discrimination, must be approved by four more states to become law.
